LECTIONARY READINGS

You can find the lectionary readings online at this address Lectionary for this year - Methodist Church or at the back of the Methodist diary.

NOTE FROM SUPERINTENDENT REV JILL MARSH

I hope you are looking forward to the new Methodist year, as I am. We're glad to be welcoming Rev Christine Crabtree to work across the circuit and pray for her as she settles in.

Firstly, a reminder that our prayers for the worship of our churches make all the difference! Thank you for all your prayers and for all you do for God in this circuit. Here are a few reminders of how we can help the worship of the circuit churches to support new as well as existing worshippers:

- A) Church Stewards need to send a message (phone or email) to the preacher for that week, asking for the service details. Feel free to tell preachers what is helpful and what you are hoping for. It is perfectly OK to suggest changes which you think would help the church to worship
- B) If a preacher cannot fulfil their preaching dates on the plan it is their responsibility to find a preacher to replace them and to be in touch with the church stewards about this, unless you are ill, in which case please contact me as Superintendent. Thank you.
- C) Remember all those who may want to be involved in the worship and pray about how to include them in ways which are helpful to them, thinking of our EDI training. If you have not yet done your training please be in touch with the office.
- D) Consider which services might be a help to people in the wider community and advertise them widely, being ready to welcome visitors.
- E) Plan for some different worship styles... outdoor, late evening, brunch or afternoon tea style, etc, can all help to spark new interest and create new relationships.
