Happy New Year to you all.

It's a short selection of news this time but no doubt that's because we're all having a rest after Advent and Christmas!

We hope to develop a new style of circuit monthly news in 2025 and look forward to keeping in touch.

Congratulations to Rev Christine Crabtree... From us all.

A number of you will have yet to meet Christine Crabtree, who joined the Circuit Staff in September.

Before she came to us, she was studying part-time, alongside ministry, for a Master's in Christian Spirituality, completing her dissertation as she arrived with us; and she has now passed the course.

Among the modules she undertook were a look back at various people in Church history who have made a contribution to our faith: Julian of Norwich, Teresa of Avila, Meister Eckhart, etc; a look at both Systematic and Mystical Theology; and an examination of spiritual direction and how our faith grows and changes with us.

Her dissertation was on A Methodist Way of Life, how it has developed since its introduction in 2018 and how it can help Methodists live out their faith in daily life. Christine studied with St. Mary's University in Twickenham and will have a graduation ceremony there in mid-March.
