Hidden Hardship Exhibition at Coventry Cathedral

'Hidden Hardship: Everyday experience, coping strategies, and barriers to wellbeing in rural Britain' is a participatory research project funded by the British Academy that has examined people's experiences of hardship in the rural North Cotswolds.

The exhibition will launch in the Chapel of Unity at Coventry Cathedral on Tuesday 30th January 2024 from 3pm – 4.30pm.

Hidden Hardship Exhibition Launch

You are invited to the launch of the Hidden Hardship Exhibition in Coventry Cathedral
30th January 2024, 3pm-4.30pm
Chapel of Unity, Coventry Cathedral

Hear a short presentation by Stephanie on the research findings and recommendations, hear from the Dean of Coventry Cathedral, and be one of the first to view this exciting new exhibition which will be hosted across the UK in 2024.

Based on the British Academy funded research by Dr Stephanie Denning, this exhibition gives an insight into people's experiences of hidden hardship in the rural North Cotswolds, their coping strategies, and barriers to better wellbeing. The exhibition features illustrations by artist Beth Waters of the Hidden Hardship research participants' stories of their experiences of hardship.
