Seeking to be Spirit-filled followers of Jesus					Pray for peace in the Ukraine, pray for the success for any peace talks that stops the killing and helps the refugee situation.	Pray for the Ukraine refugees that are hoping to settle in the Western European Countries, that their transition is smooth.	Pray for compassion towards the poor, the homeless, the hungry, the jobless, these people are our brothers & sisters.
Willingness to recognise the need to deepen our faith	04 Pray about the changing climate which mean trouble for bees. 13 bee species have become extinct in the UK since 1900.	05 Pray for NATO as it seeks to boost Kyiv's chemical and nuclear defences amid risk a Russian attack could drag alliance into the conflict.	06 Pray for the work of the Red Cross as it supports the Ukraine people with psychosocial support & essentials such as food and fuel.	07 Pray for the people who live with Fuel Poverty. Pray that fossil fuel profits are used to help people in need.	08 Pray that the USA's new sanctions "in alignment with the European Union" would result in a greater dialogue of peace.	09 Pray for an increase in Green jobs, jobs that have a focus on either reducing CO ² , restoring nature or making similar environmental improvements.	10 Pray for the meek, that they are listened to when they speak out for the lost and forgotten in our society.
Seeking to ensure that our faith is translated into action	11 Pray for the more than 3 million people have left Ukraine in recent days and a further 6 million are internally displaced.	12 Pray for a diverse range of voices to solve global problems & achieve social justice, the climate movement is still overwhelmingly white & middle-class.	13 Pray that the distribution of 400 tonnes of Ukraine aid, including food, bedding, blankets, tents, water, hygiene items across the country gets to the people quickly.	14 Pray for the 15,000 Mariupol City residents from the Levoberezhny district it is claimed, have been forcibly deported to Russia.	15 Pray for the impacts of the things we buy, was the person who produced that product paid properly and treated fairly?	16 Pray that the Russian peace march (which draws tens of thousands in support of Ukraine) gathers momentum.	17 Pray for the worldwide church, that this Easter day is a spiritual renewal for their church & a more resilient faith of their congregations.
Counting the blessings individuals bring to others	18 Pray for the impacts of the things we buy, did its production, transportation or use cause pollution, deforestation, or climate breakdown?	19 Pray for the North Korean officials have indicated their preference for mRNA vaccines, such a program would allow their leaders to partially reopen their economy.	20 Pray that the 'Alarming' amounts of nerve agent pesticides in world's honey, shown in tests, can be eliminated.	21 Pray for the impacts of the things we buy, can it be reused or disposed of safely?	22 Pray for waste initiatives like the one The Royal Mint has found a way to turn old circuit boards from phones, computers and televisions into gold.	23 Pray for art initiatives like the giant sand drawing created in Scarborough to highlight young people's worries at the loss of UK wildlife, have a wide impact.	24 Pray that the dangerous levels nitrogen dioxide (NO ₂) in the UK, which peaked as high as 102 µg/m ³ in 16 locations in 2016 can be reduced to healthier levels.
Making a difference through serving others	25 Pray for the North Korea people which has left its population of approximately 25 million people unvaccinated with minuscule immunity from prior infections.	26 Pray for the World leaders as they are becoming increasingly alarmed that Russia may resort to more desperate measures & use outlawed weapons.	27 Pray that the drive for stores to create a dedicated plastic-free area gains traction, as plastic is now found in our bodies.	28 Pray that the increased economic pressure (like the call for the expulsion of Russia from G-20) will help to stop the conflict.	29 Pray for the Worlds Forests as new data suggests forests help keep the Earth at least half of a degree cooler, protecting us from the effects of climate crisis.	30 Pray that the UK government tackles some of the negative effects of trade deals, and introduce environmentally-friendly measures at home and abroad.	01
